Fourmi the Ant

by Akshita Kakumanu

Fourmi means ant in French, one of the most beautiful languages. Fourmi's parents chose to name him by the beautiful name because they believed that he would grow up to be a true ant. But Fourmi is having trouble making that come true, and his unsupportive sister Formica doesn't help very much. Fourmi can't even pass the how to escape humans, digging, and carrying big things tests, which are essential to passing ant school. If Fourmi doesn't pass these tests in time, he'll be banished to the grass. So Fourmi's mom takes him to Dr. Terapeut, a therapist who helps him through his difficulties and tells him that he can pass his tests. Will Fourmi pass the tests and prove that he's a real ant, or will he be banished to the grass?

Rodeo Queen 101

by Anne T. Reason

At age four, Anne T. Reason fell in love with everything about the rodeo—especially saddle bronc riding. Years later, she married a saddle bronc rider who at the age of fifty-two, ignored his bad knees and arthritis. He rode his first and last bull to see if he still had his courage, and he did! Throughout all her years of attending and working rodeos, Reason has developed a great passion for the sport, the people, their responsibilities, and, most of all, their deep love and appreciation for their livestock.

In a comprehensive reference manual, Reason consults experts such as past queens, judges, directors, and an equine vet to share valuable, behind-the-scenes insight for future rodeo queens and their families. Through timeless and expert guidance, future competitors will learn helpful interview preparation tips, general information about the horsemanship competition and arena etiquette, how to find and model proper rodeo attire, and how to properly care for equines. Also included is a large glossary of rodeo and western terms as well as illustrations.

Rodeo Queen 101 combines expertise with personal stories to provide step-by-step direction for future rodeo queens and their families interested in competing locally and nationally.

ROXSANE Tiernan

ZIP

There will always be secrets. There have always been secrets. Sometimes the secrets are there because our knowing minds just don't want to remember. Sometimes we don't want to go there—period. Some of my life has been like that but I have been blessed with an amazing memory from age two and a half-forward with very rare gaps. I constantly hear “I wish I had your memory.” Would life be easier if I didn't remember? Maybe but it wouldn't come near the rich to overflowing life I've had.

Roxsane K. Tiernan

Roxsane [Zip] is an energetic, compulsive, hard working 75 year old. She has caring, community oriented siblings, two wonderful daughters and five grand children. Her wide circle of friends are scattered all over the globe and at home she has a wonderful man named, Bill, who makes her life complete. Roxsane's early life was challenging but she completed her Teacher's training at UBC, taught in a one room ungraded [Grades 1-8] school on Harrison Lake, married George Dheilly and together they raised three beautiful daughters. The youngest, Marcia, died of a brain tumor in 1981. Their marriage fell apart in 1983/1984. Needing to find more meaning in her life after the girls left home she decided to go back to University to finish her B.Ed. and get back to the most meaningful career she could find, teaching at the high school level. Since then she has worked in Mexico, traveled extensively and taught international students and immigrants before retiring becoming a prolific artist and author. Life is not fair. The most important lesson Zip taught many students. Students from many foreign places who still phone out of the blue at 4:30am just to talk or young friends of her daughters who email a plea to help them understand their partner's needs—ASK THEM—how to keep their marriage going—SPEND QUALITY TIME TOGETHER—BE UPFRONT AND HONEST—be patient with life, it's not finished with you yet.
